A house where hope lives

Charity helps disabled adults lead independent lives
Pictured above on July 20.

COURTESY KEVIN LACACE

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee’s Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee's Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee's Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee's Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee's Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee's Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.

HOW TO HELP RUPEE'S HOPE

Rupee's Hope is non-profit, based in San Jose with a mission to help disabled adults live independently in the community.

WHAT TO GIVE:

- Monetary donations. You can designate your donation to a specific child or program. Check Rupee's Hope.
- Donation of time. Rupee's Hope needs tutors, teachers, and other volunteers.
- Donation of goods. Rupee's Hope can use cell phones, computers, and other electrical items. They can also use clothing, linens, and other household items.